

A classical painting of the Nativity scene. The Virgin Mary, in a blue mantle over a red gown, kneels in prayer on the right. The infant Jesus lies in a manger on the ground. An elderly Joseph, with a long white beard and wearing a blue robe with a gold cloak, sits behind the manger. To the left, two shepherds are visible; one is kneeling in adoration of the child, while the other stands behind him. The background shows a dark, rocky cave with some greenery and a cow's head visible on the right.
