

The background of the cover is a detailed illustration of a library. Bookshelves are filled with books of various colors and sizes. A thick, brown, braided rope is draped across the shelves, forming a large, irregular frame around the central text area. The rope is knotted at several points, adding a tactile and decorative element to the design.

Gustave Flaubert
BIBLIOMANIE

INSEL-BÜCHEREI