

A close-up, high-contrast portrait of Michel Foucault, showing his eyes through rectangular glasses and the bridge of his nose. The lighting is dramatic, with deep shadows and bright highlights, creating a somber and intellectual atmosphere. The background is a soft, out-of-focus light.

Michel
Foucault
Dits et Ecrits
Schriften

Vierter Band

Suhrkamp