

An impressionist painting of a garden scene. The foreground is dominated by lush green foliage and clusters of pink and light blue flowers. The background shows a bright, overexposed sky and more distant greenery. The overall style is soft and textured, characteristic of Impressionism.

Der Flieder
im Garten von Combray
Marcel Prousts Blumen

Insel-Bücherei Nr. 1418